

Worldsleep 2011/ The 36th JSSR Press Advisory

We welcome members of the press at Worldsleep 2011. All lectures and poster sessions are open to all personnel representing the press. Media registration is FREE, if members qualify for our media registration requirements. Please note that the fashion show at the Congress Party has its own policy, therefore it is exempt from the regular media registration.

1. Registration for Media

- Media are required to register at the Inquiry desk.
- Only media members who present press credentials to the Congress Secretariat will receive a press badge.
- A press badge must be worn at all times to gain access to Worldsleep 2011 sessions, exhibitor floor, and other related events.

2. Session Access and Rules

- Members of the press who are registered with Worldsleep 2011 and wearing their press badges are welcome in the exhibit hall and sessions; however, the luncheon seminars and other sponsored sessions are not open to media.

3. Photography, video and audio recordings

- Permissions must be obtained in advance for photography, videography and audio recordings. Unless pre-approved, interviews and recordings are not allowed. You may contact ws2011@secretariat.ne.jp for more information.
- If you wish to use power plugs and sockets for audio and technical matters, please notify the conference organizer in advance.

*Without advance notification, your request will not be processed. Moreover, please be informed that extra charges may be applicable.

- All the visual and audio recordings are subject to copyright protection.

4. Media activities

- During the program, please avoid any distractions to speakers and other attendees. Flash and other lighting units are not permitted while a session is in progress.

5. Others

- Taking photos of sceneries at the venue, which includes registration, all the signage, and other scenery are welcomed; however, close-up photographs of individual attendees is restricted.
- There is no press room at the venue
- Kindly send us a copy of the media coverage to the Worldsleep 2011 secretariat
