

(WSF-3, WSF-4)

Sleep in Genetic SIG Meeting /
2nd International Sleep Symposium in Kyoto

Date: Wednesday, October 19, 10:00-12:00 and 1:00-3:00

Location: Room 510, Kyoto International Conference Center, Kyoto

Chairs / organizers:

Hiroshi Kadotani (Kyoto University, Japan)

Allan I. Pack (University of Pennsylvania, USA)

10:00-12:00

Lessons on International Collaborations in Genetic Research from Other Disciplines

Brendan Keating (University of Pennsylvania, USA)

Identifying Genetic Variants for Sleep Phenotypes Through Multi-center Consortia: Experience with CARE and CHARGE

Brian Cade (Harvard University, USA)

Lesson from Studies of Genetics of Psychiatric Disease—Implications for Insomnia Research

Edna Byrne (Queensland Institute of Medical Research, Australia)

Efforts in Europe Including New Cohort Studies and Studies in Narcolepsy

Mehdi Tafti (Switzerland)

12:00-1:00 Lunch Break

1:00-3:00

Ongoing Effort in Japan in Genetics of Sleep and Its Disorders

Hiroshi Kadotani (Kyoto University, Japan)

Current Status of International Genetics of OSA

Allan I. Pack (University of Pennsylvania, USA)

Discussion Panel – all speakers

Each speaker will have 30 minutes for their presentation.

We will break in the middle for lunch.